Terms of award

Terms of Award

If this nomination is chosen for consideration—

The Office for Victims of Crime (OVC), a component of the Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice, is authorized to contact the nominee for his or her date of birth and Social Security number in order to initiate a Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) name check. This information is needed to provide enough identifying data to allow a search of FBI records and federal, state, and local law enforcement civil and criminal records. The results of the name check are used to assist OVC in making a determination of suitability or eligibility to receive a National Crime Victims' Service Award. Furnishing this information is voluntary; however, if a nominee chooses not to provide it, the refusal may result in a determination of ineligibility to receive a National Crime Victims' Service Award. To participate on stage in the awards ceremony, individual award recipients, members of a group award recipient, and accompanying officials must provide the same information for a name check upon request.

Award recipient's travel expenses will be reimbursed within Federal Government guidelines.

If chosen for an award, the nominee agrees to—

- Participate in all National Crime Victims' Service Awards Ceremony events taking place in Washington, D.C. The award recipient's travel expenses will be reimbursed within Federal Government guidelines. For group nominations, expenses will be reimbursed for a maximum of two nominees.
- I acknowledge that I read and understood the above Terms of Award.*
- The general use by the media and posting to Federal Government component Web sites of their photographic portraits or pictures, digital images, videotapes, other media material, and sound recordings. The media will be invited to participate in all events associated with National Crime Victims' Rights Week.
- I acknowledge that I read and understood the above Terms of Award.*
- The public dissemination of their biographical information, including award-related personal and/or professional stories.

I acknowledge that I read and understood the above Terms of Award.*

To the best of my knowledge, all of the information contained in this application is true and correct.
(By checking this box, you are signing the nomination form and attesting to its accuracy to the best of your knowledge.)*
